

DIRECTIONS TO CAMP AGAPÉ

FROM THE EAST OR SOUTH USING I-40W:

(ONLY if you are confident following country roads off of I-40, there is a slightly shorter route entitled "SHORTCUT DIRECTIONS TO CAMP AGAPÉ FROM POINTS EAST OR SOUTH USING I-40 WEST")

In general, any directions have potential to be confusing for many people, especially to a place well secluded from the bustle of traffic and city roads. In order for directions to be effective, you must trust in them and not second-guess what is written. If you follow our written directions exactly (especially where exact distances are underlined>, you should arrive without getting lost along the way.

Take I-40W to Exit #312 – Hwy 42.

Take Hwy 42 West into and through Fuquay-Varina.

Hwy 42 West joins 401 early in Fuquay.

When passing Ruby Tuesday, stay in the left lane. The next traffic light is at Hwy 55.

Continue STRAIGHT through the traffic light at Hwy 55 (stay on 42/401).

Go straight through one more traffic light.

Proceed to the next traffic light, which is where Hwy 42 and Hwy 401 split.

Turn RIGHT at this traffic light (Academy Street) to stay on Hwy 42 West.

Drive 4.7 miles to Cokesbury Road.

At around 4 miles into this stretch there is a Marathon Station called "Duncan Junction".

After Duncan Junction, cross the railroad tracks—the next road on the left is Cokesbury Road.

Turn LEFT onto Cokesbury Road. (The same road is named Buckhorn Duncan to the right)

Drive 3.7 miles to River Road.

Landmark—Radio tower on the left at River Road.

Turn RIGHT onto River Road.

Drive 1.7 miles to the Agapé driveway.

Landmark: Cokesbury United Methodist Church on left soon after turning onto River Road.

Landmark: Chalk Level Church on left just before the Agapé driveway.

The Agapé Driveway is on the right marked with a large white sign.

Turn RIGHT onto the Agapé Driveway. (Tyler Dewar Lane)

Drive 0.9 mile to the well-marked main entrance. (beginning of gravel road)

WELCOME! Follow the signs to where you need to be.

If you are the group leader or are arriving earlier than your group leader, please stop at the Office Welcome Center ahead and left as you enter camp.
