

The NCSCOS standards for 7th grade focus on atmosphere, weather & climate, water cycle, and physical science topics of motion, force, and energy transfer.

We offer several lessons on weather and the water cycle, but not at the 7th grade level.

We have other lessons that are not correlated to the NCSCOS, however. Check the general themes to see if anything might serve as a fun supplement to the educational plan for your school.